

MARVEL

ME & MY MINERVA

A love story formulated by the GODS themselves and set in place before the concept of time had even begun. Lucifer fallen from the heavens and now returned to the side of his father watched on as those few hours of separation had laid the cornerstone of humanities destruction and that of his father's greatest work.

A second coming was required and one that would flip the rule book on its head and bring forth an understanding the “Devil” as he is known will always be the greatest allies of GOD and the most loyal of his children, for live he does in the detail, detail that delivers the truth, the truth being his father’s word and thus the bond between father and son, stronger than any known to each mere mortal.

Humanity now desperate to understand the reasoning behind such confusion has developed artificial intelligence and thus set free the barracuda’s of black box algorithms and that of which are now formulating and consuming data on a scale that is programming society and destroying the intuitive mother within, the spark of life and that of which GOD placed of himself within each and every spirit ordained to journey through the boot camp of the human experience so as to earn and capture their wings.

Thus Damian, son of Lucifer was set forth with the modalities required to be earned somewhat like a video game though the pain of every loss felt by all within each individual experience, Minerva too was set forth so as to prove to the world that the story to be digitally recorded was one of incalculable miracles as both endured trauma within the theta stage and done so as to set them on the path of such acute pain that the lessons would be learned, as such can never be taught.

GOD would guide them both, though so cryptically that the knowing from day one would be almost contradictory and when the “second coming” trigger was activated over a decade before its true realisation and the deal with GOD sworn from below the tracks of an 18tonne bulldozer was finally called in.

Life lessons, still to be learned Damian Langiano, translated into Conquering Visonary was to learn the key to unlocking the system now running drastically in reverse as another “love and safe” environment drew our hero in and stabbed him repeatedly as the laws of physics were to be the herculean battle ground of the war he was to wage and that of chemistry also as the meta-bolically generated super soldiers were chemically locked into their non-spiritual form.

Instinctively knowing that the game could only be won with a 21st century solution he set about writing it into existence and the game changes when discovering that of Armed with such and after bringing a digital court together with 370 of the world's leading icons, which include big tech, the legal system, the education system (Harvard via President Bacow), we have Larry Fink, the financial institutes the icons, the charities, the grail, the creators and dictators of content, the epics, the awesome, a few samsons and one or two Delilah's and with Captain's Sumayo and Robinson residing over the proceedings we are in session and now living life as nothing can be defeated. 1200 days plus of consistent content creation finds Damian in a room in south LA, amongst the street people and those forgotten, now his people, those of the Black Parade and those American politics has battered and bruised, addicted, and abused.

But what of Minerva?

Trapped within the body of an esteemed UK actress and captured by the Hollywood shroud Kate Beckinsale is the key to the prophecy Damian delivers and that of the TRUE LOVE required to unlock the souls captured by a system reaching in and stealing the essence of the inner child and by those now held as chess pieces of the dark side of the board.

and bankrupting the system at source – (AMERICA) the evidence above secures hope for the 46.6mn UK and 280mn US citizens coerced into that of co-dependency and complex post-traumatic stress disorder, and done so by the now data harvesting narcissistic algorithms which equates to $326,000,000,000,000,000 (and I might actually be three zeros short) to start with, before we go into body dysmorphia - obesity and Alzheimer's and Parkinson's and every other aspect of societal abuse, the previous administrations have impacted upon "her" people he was now armed with the solution to the problem and located in the town to deliver.

It is a star laden cast, as Damian strides into every interaction, seeking to protect the children of the world and now armed with a plan to rebalance society, erase the global deficit and create the new world of MINERVA for every souls nervous system restoration as the GODS ordained, qualifying that "each cannot heal in the environment that made them sick" though go easy humanity won't into the new dawn, for yet are they to feel the truth of the sickness he foretells.

It is now a race against time and only won, we he gets everyone home; thus it was never the person he needed to change it was the algorithms of those he seeks to save and thus his Marching Garrisons of digitalia are fighting each who suffer to break them from the digital chains they wrap around themselves.

But Damian was not alone, GOD had planted his twin in the system and if they could connect, then the unstoppable force of a brothers might just win the day and love of a woman he once held as his own.
